

Location Notifications

Pending Requests

The Friends list is a local storage driven database of contacts keyed off of a handle, such as an email or phone number. Requests go to the handle by email or attempted sms message with url by polling common email aliases for wireless carriers.

Map view simply shows Google Maps Markers on map. Click events should reveal user's identity, or perhaps they should appear themselves on map

